FREE CLINIC WISH LIST

Since the hurricane, the Free Clinic has been swamped with people who need help. Here are some of the things they are asking for: Toiletries, over the counter medications and supplies, non-perishable foods, office supplies, pet food, socks, underwear, used seasonal clothing, bed linens. There is an urgent need right now for personal care products. And, of course, money.

President’s Message

Sometimes it seems that all I ever do is say “Thank you.” And now I’m going to do it again. We survived the STORM with a lot of help. My family has a gang of nephews who put up our shutters, took down our shutters, and helped (that means did most of the hard work) through the whole preparation and cleanup.

Everyone has stories of people who helped others and our first greetings have been, “Did you have much damage?” I hope all of us continue safe and well.

We were lucky here to be hit by a weakened storm. Others have not been so fortunate. If you want to offer donations, remember that the UUSC makes it easy to contribute to their disaster relief efforts.

The UUSC website explains how they use donations: <http://www.uusc.org/disaster-response-faq/>
