President’s Message

Recently the Fellowship received an inquiry from another UU congregation asking if we had a written policy about guns and illegal drugs. We don’t. I have never considered having a written policy about either. If anyone turned up some morning brandishing a gun or strewing illegal drugs around, I doubt that countering with a written policy would provide a very effective defense. I expect we can all agree that neither would be in keeping with our Fellowship culture and we’d likely call in some professional help if necessary.

On the other hand, we do have a policy about perfume. Since several members are very sensitive to perfumes, and asthma attacks and headaches limit enjoyment of a pleasant Sunday morning, we do ask that perfumes and highly scented soaps and laundry products be left at home. I recall a sign I saw in Ontario many years ago: “No Scents make Sense in Ontario.” It makes sense at the Fellowship, too.
