I should dearly love that the world should be ever so little better for my presence. Even on this small stage we have our two sides, and something might be done by throwing all one's weight on the scale of breadth, tolerance, charity, temperance, peace, and kindness to man and beast. We can't all strike very big blows, and even the little ones count for something.

Arthur Conan Doyle

Truth-tellers are not always palatable.
There is a preference for candy bars.

Join us for breakfast at 9 a.m. on Wednesdays at Kissin' Cuzzins, 34th St. and 10th Ave. N.

No scents makes sense - remember, we have several people at the Fellowship who are very allergic to perfume.
