

UUUF

Unitarian Universalism is not the freedom to believe anything or nothing. It is the freedom to reason and feel your own way to whatever the evidence leads you to believe.

You have the freedom to form your own beliefs. There are responsibilities that go with this freedom. Some are:

Understanding why you believe as you do

Learning from your experience

Using your mind to reason and find answers

Exploring the belief and practices of the world's religions

Learning about Unitarian Universalism, past and present

UUUF

Join us for breakfast at 9 a.m. on Wednesdays at Kissin' Cuzzins, 34th St. and 10th Ave. N.

Please silence your cell phones during the service

No scents makes sense - remember, we have several people at the Fellowship who are very allergic to perfume.

A word after a word after a word is power.

Margaret Atwood

I think everybody who has a brain should get involved in politics. Working within. Not criticizing it from the outside. Become an active participant, no matter how feeble you think the effort is.
