President's Message

Where do the days go? It's already May and I'm so far behind there's no hope of catching up. It seems that time moves faster as we age so the days grow wings. My sister likes to say "Gettin' old ain't for sissies." For me, aging is a test of my level of gratitude. The good usually outweighs the bad but it's a little work to keep the good in focus and minimize the bad. Here's hoping the good dwarfs the bad in your life. We all deserve that.

We are not human because we think. We are human because we care. All true meaning is shared meaning.

Forrest Church (Unitarian Universalist, clergy, author)

I think it must somewhere be written,
that the virtues of mothers shall, occasionally,
be visited on their children, as well as the sins of fathers.

Charles Dickens (Unitarian, reformer, author)

Every crime destroys more Edens than our own.

Nathaniel Hawthorne (Transcendentalist, Unitarian, author)
